Welcome to RESPECTisms

Watch together. Talk together. Think together.

Meet the RESPECTisms Kidz introduces Reece, Emily, Sage, Piper, Ethan, Chloe and Theo and the seven RESPECTisms principles.

This guide is designed to help parents, carers, teachers and trusted adults turn the video into a conversation.

There are no test questions and children do not need to find one 'correct' answer. Give them time to think, listen to what they say and encourage them to explain why.

The Seven RESPECTisms

- R — Responsibility
- E — Education
- S — Say No
- P — Peers
- E — Expectations
- C — Consequences
- T — Time

Before you begin

Start with the characters rather than the child.

Talking about Reece, Emily, Sage, Piper, Ethan, Chloe and Theo gives children a safe way to explore ideas before the conversation becomes more personal.

Useful follow-up:

- Why do you think that?
- What else could happen?
- What might they do next?

1 Who caught your attention?

Which of the RESPECTisms Kidz would you most like to know more about?

Follow-up questions:

- What did you notice about them?
- What do you think makes them interesting?

2 What did you notice?

Did any of the Kidz seem different from one another? What did you notice about their choices, feelings or actions?

Follow-up questions:

- What can people who are different learn from one another?
- Did you notice anything the Kidz had in common too?

3 Remember the RESPECTisms

Can you remember any of the seven RESPECTisms? What do you think one of them means?

Follow-up questions:

- Can you think of a time when that might be important?
- How might it help you or someone else?

4 A tricky choice

Imagine one of the Kidz had to make a difficult choice. What kind of choice might it be?

Follow-up questions:

- What could they do before deciding?
- Who could they talk to?

5 Helping a friend

If one of the RESPECTisms Kidz was worried or had made a mistake, what could another Kid do to help them?

Follow-up questions:

- How do you think that might make them feel?
- What would be a kind and supportive thing to do?

6 Now it's your turn

If you joined the RESPECTisms Kidz, what would you want to help other children with?

Follow-up questions:

- Why did you choose that?
- What difference do you think you could make?

Finish the Conversation

Keep the conversation going! Here are some ideas to wrap up and extend the discussion.

Talk about it

- What did you enjoy most about meeting the RESPECTisms Kidz?
- Did anything surprise you?
- Which RESPECTism would you most like to see the Kidz explore in a story?
- Is there a situation you'd like to see the Kidz face in a future story?

Get creative

- Draw a picture of your favourite character or the whole group.
- Write a short story about a day in the life of one of the RESPECTisms Kidz.
- Create a new adventure for the Kidz.
- Make a poster showing a kind choice.
- Think of a new character or a challenge you'd like to see.

At home or in the classroom

- Use these questions for family conversations, circle time or PSHE.
- Let children share their ideas in small groups.
- Encourage listening and respect for different views.
- You can return to the questions after watching future RESPECTisms stories.

Remember

- Every child's ideas are valuable.
- Different points of view make the conversation richer.
- Give children time to think and explain why.
- Small conversations can make a big difference.

A brighter tomorrow

The RESPECTisms Kidz show us that small choices can make a big difference. By talking, listening and thinking together, we can all help create a kinder, more respectful world.
