RESPECTisms Questions Guidance

Use these questions to start a friendly conversation with your child or class. Listen to their thoughts and let them share their ideas. There are no right or wrong answers. After they give their answer, try asking:

"Why do you think that?"

This helps them talk more and think more deeply.

1

Why did Piper think hiding Biscuit's ball might not be a good idea?

2

How do you think Piper felt when her friends
wanted to hide the ball?

3

What could you do if your friends wanted to play a game that you didn't think was kind?

Good Choices. Stronger You. Brighter Tomorrows.
